

ACCESSIBILITY STATEMENT

Last updated: July 20, 2026

At NOTEBOREN ART, we are committed to making www.noteborenart.com accessible and inclusive for all visitors, regardless of ability, technology or individual needs.

We believe that art should be accessible to everyone and continuously strive to improve the usability and accessibility of our website.

Our Commitment

We aim to provide a website that is easy to navigate and compatible with a wide range of devices and assistive technologies.

Where possible, we follow internationally recognised accessibility standards, including the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1, Level AA.

Accessibility Features

Our website is designed to support accessibility by:

- providing clear and consistent navigation;
 - using readable fonts and sufficient colour contrast where possible;
 - ensuring pages are responsive across desktop, tablet and mobile devices;
 - adding alternative text (alt text) to images where appropriate;
 - maintaining a logical heading structure;
 - supporting keyboard navigation where possible;
 - regularly reviewing and improving accessibility as new content is added.

Ongoing Improvements

Accessibility is an ongoing process.

We regularly review our website and continue to improve its accessibility, functionality and user experience.

Some older content or third-party integrations may not yet fully meet current accessibility standards. We appreciate your understanding while improvements are being made.

Third-Party Content

Some parts of this website may include content or services provided by third parties. While we encourage accessible design, NOTEBOREN ART cannot guarantee the accessibility of external websites or third-party applications.

Feedback

If you experience any accessibility barriers while using this website, or if you have suggestions for improving accessibility, we would be pleased to hear from you.
